Erika, 94 out of 98. This is the strongest paper of the batch and it is worth being specific about why, because it is not luck.

The past simple is the whole point of this workshop, and you scored 14 out of 14 on the irregular verbs and 4 out of 4 on the regular ones. Had, could, knew, came, drank, said, felt, took, thought, wore, went: every single one right. Those are the verbs that carry almost every story anyone tells about their life, and you now have them.

Then look at 6a: 19 out of 19. Every one of the eleven questions built correctly, including knowing when it is was or were and when it is did you. That is exactly the thing that went wrong in the session with Nina, when she asked how your day was and what you did. On paper you can now do it. The next step is doing it out loud without the paper.

The vocabulary sections were perfect too: 10 out of 10 on turning verbs and nouns into job words, 8 out of 8 on ordering the time expressions, 4 out of 4 on the job words from the readings.

What you lost: three marks in 1g. Go back and reread those three stories, because the information is all there. Mina was the one stuck in the lift hearing the party; Jenny was the one outside watching fireworks; Andy was the DJ whose watch was slow. Slow down and match each detail to the right person before you write the letter.

Two things still outstanding. Part 7, the video, has not been started: the notes page is empty. And your email in Part 8 tells me about Christmas, but the task asked about New Year's Eve. The English in it is good, so it is worth rewriting on the right topic rather than starting again.

One note on the marks themselves: this workshop had no answer key, so I built one from the workshop document. Parts 3a, 3b, 3e and the three audios in Part 5 depend on recordings I cannot hear, so they are not in the 94. Exercise 3c is marked against the painter's life rather than the recording; check it against your copy if anything looks wrong.

WHAT TO CORRECT

Only four marks lost in the whole paper, and three of them are in one exercise. Read the last column out loud once.

Workshop 16: Stories from the Past past simple: was / were · regular verbs · irregular verbs · word formation · past time expressions

Name	Erika Garbello	Date	30 Agosto.
Level	Elementary	Teacher	Alejandro

In this workshop you will learn to talk about the past. You will read about three famous Colombians, about a holiday that went wrong, and about three very different New Year's Eves. You will learn was and were, the past of regular verbs, and the past of fifteen irregular verbs. You will also learn how to build the word for a job from a verb, and how to say when something happened. At the end you will make a short video for our Facebook page, and write me a real email about a New Year's Eve you remember.

Your plan for today

Part 1 — Three lives and three New Year's Eves reading
Part 2 — Wrong name, wrong place reading and listening
Part 3 — The past simple grammar
Part 4 — Jobs, and when it happened vocabulary
Part 5 — Listening three audios
Part 6 — Sentence stress pronunciation
Part 7 — Your video for our Facebook page speaking
Part 8 — An email to your teacher writing

What you need

- Nine audio tracks: 7.1, 7.4, 7.6, 7.7, 7.8, 7.12, 7.14, 7.17 and 7.18.
- I will send you all nine files before you start. Keep them in one folder on your phone or computer.
- Your phone, to record the video for Part 7 and to take or find a photo for Part 8.
- Your email, for Part 8. My address is luissalejandrogarcia777@gmail.com.

How to work through this workshop

- Work at your own pace. You can do the workshop in one sitting, or over two or three days.
- Play each audio as many times as you need. Nobody is listening to you, so there is no rush.
- Write your answers directly in this document, or print it and write by hand.
- If you are not sure of an answer, write your best guess. A guess tells me more than an empty line.
- Say the reading texts out loud at least once. Your mouth learns a language faster than your eyes.

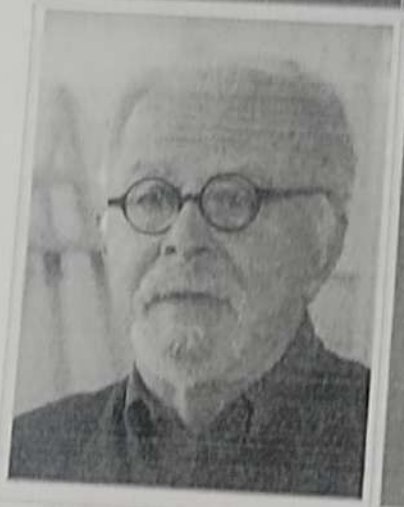

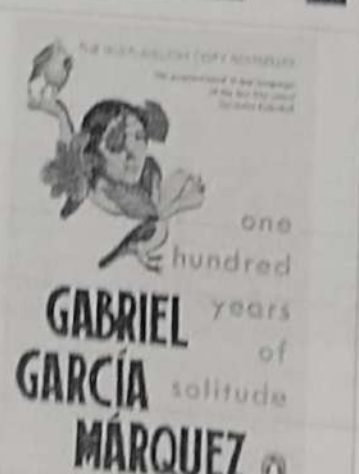

⚠ Two parts need more than a pen. Part 7 is a video and Part 8 is an email. Leave enough time for them, and send both to me when you finish.

Part 1 — Reading: Three Lives and Three New Year's Eves

This part has two readings. First you will read about three famous Colombians. Then you will read about three New Year's Eves. Both readings talk about the past, so look carefully at the verbs. You will need them again in Part 3.

Reading 1 — Three famous Colombians

When the boy was 12, his uncle sent him to a school for bullfighters, because he wanted him to be a matador. But Botero wasn't interested in bullfighting. He was interested in drawing, so he drew the bulls instead of fighting them. In 1952 he won a prize at the national art show in Bogotá, and he travelled to Europe with the money. Later, his paintings and sculptures of big, round people were famous all over the world, and this style is now called Boterismo. He gave 180 paintings to Colombia, and today they are in the Botero Museum in Bogotá. He died in 2023, when he was 91.

Shakira

Shakira is a Colombian singer and songwriter. Her full name is Shakira Isabel Mebarak Ripoll, and she was born in Barranquilla in 1977. When she was a child she loved music, but her music teacher didn't want her in the school choir. He said her voice was too strong for the other children. Her first two albums, Magia (1991) and Peligro (1993), weren't a success. So in 1994 she tried something completely different: she was an actor in a Colombian television series called El Oasis, and she played a young woman called Luisa María. Then, in 1995, her album Pies Descalzos was an enormous success, and today she is one of the most famous singers in the world. Shakira wasn't happy about her television series. In 2002 she bought the rights to it, so it isn't on television any more.

3 Pies Descalzos was an enormous success.
2 She was an actor in a television series.
1 Her music teacher said no to her.

Gabriel García Márquez

Gabriel García Márquez was a Colombian writer. He was born in 1927 in Aracataca, a small town in the north of Colombia, between the mountains and the Caribbean Sea. His parents weren't there when he was small, so he lived with his grandparents. His grandfather was an old colonel with hundreds of stories about the war, and his grandmother told him stories about ghosts. Later he was a student of law in Bogotá, but he didn't finish his studies, because he was a journalist and he wanted to write for newspapers. In 1967 his novel Cien años de soledad (One Hundred Years of Solitude) was an enormous success, and it was a bestseller in more than thirty languages. In 1982 he won the Nobel Prize for Literature. He died in Mexico in 2014.

MINA

This was last year, and I went to a hotel with some friends. It had a bar on the top floor, and that's where the party was. We got there at about 11.00. About half an hour before midnight I realized I didn't have my phone. It was in my car. So I took the lift down to the car park. I found my phone, and then I got back into the lift. I was the only person in it. But then, between the third and fourth floors, the lift stopped completely and I couldn't get out. I pressed the button and asked for help, but a guy said there was an electrical fault and I needed to wait. Then a few minutes later, I could hear people outside celebrating. It was awful. I didn't get out until almost 1.00 in the morning. And on top of it all, my friends didn't realize that I wasn't there!

JENNY

I had a fantastic New Year's Eve in Iceland in 2013. First, we went to a really expensive restaurant for dinner. It was early, about 6.00, because that's when people have dinner in Iceland. I wore a lovely dress, but after dinner we got a taxi back to the hotel and I put on boots and a warm jacket. Then we went out and watched the amazing fireworks. Suddenly, at about 10.00, everyone went home to watch TV. There's this famous programme they always watch on New Year's Eve! It was really strange. The streets were empty for a bit. But then just before midnight people came out again and danced and drank till about 5.00 in the morning. It was incredible.

ANDY

I'm a DJ, and this happened to me a few years ago. It was my first time at a New Year's Eve party, and I planned all the music really carefully. I knew exactly which tracks I was going to play. The first part of the night was fine, but just when I thought it was time to start the countdown to midnight, I saw that people were all at the bar, not on the dance floor, and the TVs were on. On the screens I could see fireworks, and Big Ben! I looked at my watch and I realized it was about two minutes slow! I felt really stupid. I bought a new watch the next day!

Adapted from blogs.

1g. Read the stories again. Complete the sentences with A (Andy), J (Jenny), or M (Mina).

1 A was outside at midnight.
2 M didn't know exactly when midnight was.
3 M was alone at midnight.
4 A was at work at midnight.
5 J heard the celebrations, but didn't see them.
6 J was surprised by something people did.

	Present	Past
1	ask	asked ✓
2	decide	decided ✓
3	reply	replied ✓
4	don't want	didn't want. ✓

REGULAR VERBS — add -ed

Most verbs make the past simple with -ed, and the form never changes: I, you, he, she, it, we, they worked.

✓ work → worked ask → asked watch → watched

✓ verbs ending in -e: decide → decided live → lived

✓ verbs ending in consonant + -y: reply → replied study → studied

3g. AUDIO 7.14 Listen and check. Then practise saying the verbs out loud.

Part 4 — Vocabulary: Jobs, and When It Happened

Part 6 — Pronunciation: Sentence Stress

These are the questions you will need in Part 7 and Part 8, so do this part carefully.

6a. Look at the questions. What words are missing? Write them on the lines.

A memorable New Year's Eve

1 What year was it?
2 Where were you?
3 Who were you with?
4 Where did you have dinner?
5 What did you wear?
6 What did you do before midnight?
7 What did you do at midnight?

8 What did you do after midnight?
9 How was the weather?
10 What time did you go to bed?
11 Did you have a good time?

6b. AUDIO 7.18 Listen and repeat the questions. Copy the rhythm. Say the big words strongly, and the small words quickly.

How English rhythm works

In an English question, the important words are strong and slow. The small grammar words are weak and fast. Listen for the strong words:

Where WERE you? What DID you WEAR? DID you have a GOOD TIME?

Part 7 — Speaking: Your Video for Our Facebook Page

Now it is time to use the past simple in a real situation. You are going to make a short video for our class Facebook page about selfies. The video is about one to two minutes long.

a. Choose your selfie

Find one selfie on your phone, or take a new one now. You will show this photo in your video, so choose one you are happy for other people to see.

If you never take selfies, choose any photo of yourself instead, or simply show the camera your face.

b. Do you ever take selfies?

Choose YES or NO. Then answer the questions in that column only.

YES	NO
Do you have any on your phone?	Why don't you take them?
Where were you?	Why do you think other people take them?
When was it?	Do any of your friends and family take them?
Who were you with?	Do you have any photos of you on your phone that are not selfies? Where were you?

c. How to make your video

1 Read your column of questions and plan short answers. Write notes, not a full script.
2 Practise two or three times before you film. Say the answers out loud.
3 Film a short video, about one to two minutes. Show your selfie at the beginning, and say who is in it.

4 Speak clearly and have fun. Small mistakes are fine.

5 Send me the video, and I will post it on our Facebook page.

d. Useful language for your video

Starting: Hi, I'm ___. / This is a selfie of me. / In this photo I'm with ___.

Saying yes: Yes, I do. / I take a lot of selfies. / I have hundreds on my phone.

Saying no: No, I don't. / I never take selfies. / I don't really like photos of myself.

Talking about the past: I was in ___. / It was in ___ (year). / I was with my ___. / We were on holiday. / The weather was ___.

Finishing: And that's my selfie! / Thank you for watching.

⚠ Before you send it: the video goes on our class Facebook page. If you would prefer me not to post it, tell me and I will keep it private. Only send a photo of yourself, and do not show other people without asking them first.

Part 8 — Writing: An Email to Your Teacher

Write me a real email about one memorable New Year's Eve in your life. Attach a photo, so I can really see how and why that night was special for you.

Send it to: luissalejandrogarcia777@gmail.com

Subject: A New Year's Eve I remember

Attach: one photo of that night, or of the place, or of the people you were with

a. Plan your email

Think about a New Year's Eve you remember. Use the eleven questions in 6a and answer them for that night. Add all the extra information you can.

The year	2023
Where you were	at my home with my family
Who you were with	My family and close friends.
What you did	We ate a delicious dinner, listened to music and hugged at midnight.
Why you remember it	Because we were all together, happy and celebrating new goals.
Your photo	a picture of my family eating dinner and celebrating together.

b. Useful language for your email

Opening: Hi Alejandro, / Dear Alejandro,

Starting the story: I want to tell you about a New Year's Eve I remember. / It was in ___ (year). / I was ___ years old.

Dear Alejandro
I want to tell you abaut a chritmas I remember
It was in Dcember 2024 and I was outside my house with my family. We had dinner and sperd a great time together - I wore a black t-shirt and grey trousers, and the weather was nice. My daughter was playing nearby, so she is not in the photo.
It was fantastic and I felt very happy, I am sending you a photo of that special night. In the Photo you can my mother, my sister, and me smiling outside wit the christmas lights.
I will never forget it.

Check before you send

- Did you use the past simple? Look for was, were, went, had, wore, felt.
- Did you check the irregular verbs from Part 3?
- Did you add a past time expression, for example last year or in 2019?
- Did you attach the photo?
- Did you say why that night was special for you?

Well done!

You have finished Workshop 16. Send me three things: this document with your answers, your video for Part 7, and your email for Part 8. See you in class.
