Workshop 16: Who or Whose?

Valery Herrera · Workshop 16

3.3	29 / 44	PASS
NOTA	points	pass is 3.0

Part by part

Part	Score	What happened
1B Find the partner	7 / 7	All seven pairs, each in its own colour. Perfect.
3A Write the word	4 / 8	The WHOSE words are the ones to practise.
4A Mistake Detective	5 / 6	Five of six fixed.
5A The Green Path	7 / 7	Perfect, and every one of the twenty boxes coloured.
6A Draw and write	3 / 4	Three of four, and good drawings.
8 My Test	3 / 12	This is the part to do again.
Total	29 / 44 = 3.3

What you did well

- Section 1 is perfect. All seven partners joined, each in a different colour, and you even coloured the dots to match. That is the hardest thing in the workshop to get completely right.
- The Green Path is perfect: all seven green words, and not one blue word coloured green by mistake. You know which words belong to which family.
- In 4A you fixed five of the six wrong sentences, including Their are happy, which is the one most children miss.

What to work on before the next workshop

- Look at the word straight after the gap. is, are, am → a WHO word. A thing you can draw → a WHOSE word. Sections 1 and 5 show you know both lists by heart; the test is only about choosing between them.
- You know the pairs but you are not yet reaching for the WHOSE half: his, her, its and our are the four that cost you points.
- Her is and Their are can never be right. A WHOSE word always has a thing next to it.
- Do Section 8 again on a clean sheet. 3 of 12 is far below what the rest of your paper shows you can do.

Notes for the teacher

- Marked out of 44, not 52. The 8 colour points in Section 3 were set aside, as agreed: the whole page is in grey pencil.
- Her twenty coloured boxes were checked by pixel analysis: the seven green cells are exactly the correct path.
- 4A.4 reads as May but is her usual hand for My, and was given.
- Sections 1 and 5 together are 14 of 14, and the test is 3 of 12. She has the vocabulary and not yet the choice, which is precisely what the rebuilt Workshop 16 drills.

Who or Whose?

¿Quién o de quién?

English Workshop 16 · The blue team and the green team

Name / Nombre: Valery Gutiérrez Date / Fecha: 12-26-19

You already know both teams. The only hard part is choosing.

A WHO word tells you who does it. It stands alone: She is nine.

A WHOSE word tells you whose it is. It always holds a thing: her book.

Una palabra WHO dice quién hace algo y va sola. Una palabra WHOSE dice de quién es algo y siempre lleva una cosa pegada.

1 The Two Teams

Los dos equipos

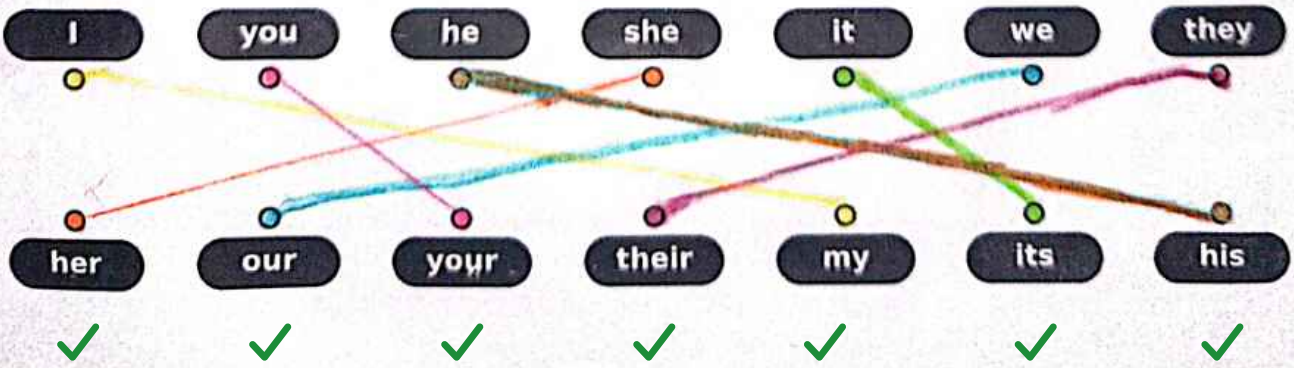

Look at the green team. Every one of them is carrying something. That is the whole secret of this workshop.

A. Say it! Read the seven pairs out loud and clap on every word: I 👏 my 👏 you 👏 your 👏 ...

¡Dilo! Lee las siete parejas en voz alta y da una palmada en cada palabra.

B. Find the partner! Cover the picture with your hand. Then join each blue word to its green partner. (7 pts)

¡Busca la pareja! Tapa el dibujo con tu mano. Luego une cada palabra azul con su pareja verde.

Sin lápiz: los dos equipos, hablando

Nobody writes here. Three quick games, out loud.
Aquí nadie escribe. Tres juegos rápidos, hablando.

GAME 1 Hands Up, Hands Full
Manos arriba, manos llenas

Your teacher says a sentence with a gap. A WHO word? Put your hands up and open. A WHOSE word? Hug your notebook, because a WHOSE word always carries something.
Tu profe dice una frase con un espacio. WHO: manos arriba y abiertas. WHOSE: abraza tu cuaderno.

"___ is my friend." → hands up · "This is ___ bag." → hug your notebook

GAME 2 Finish My Sentence
Termina mi frase

Play with a partner or with your teacher. One of you says only a WHOSE word: my…, her…, their… The other adds a thing before you count to three. A WHOSE word alone is never finished!
Con una pareja o con tu profe. Uno dice solo la palabra WHOSE; el otro añade una cosa antes de contar hasta tres.

"her…" → "her cat!" · "our…" → "our house!"

GAME 3 Who Has It? Whose Is It?
¿Quién lo tiene? ¿De quién es?

Everybody holds up one thing: a pencil, a toy, a cup. Your teacher asks two questions. Answer Who…? with a blue word and Whose…? with a green word.
Cada uno muestra una cosa. Tu profe pregunta Who…? (¿quién?) y Whose…? (¿de quién?).

"Who has a cup?" → "She has a cup!" · "Whose cup is it?" → "Her cup!"
