Not counted in the score

- Part 8 (the way to your house): printed "Not marked" on the paper and kept out of the 48 by the key. Her map and her five lines of directions are on page 10 and are worth a comment, not a score.

Notes on the marking

- P2.6 is marked CORRECT although she wrote "The bridge." in words where the printed instruction says "write the letter". The key's own answer for item 6 is "the bridge", in words, and the printed rule for that item is longer than the other five. She read it right.
- P4a.2 is wrong: the question asks how many people help her, and the glyph she wrote is the identical F she used for item 1, not a number. The answer is 1.
- P5b.1 has two answers in one gap: "right" written on the line and "(left)" in brackets above it, with nothing on the page to show which is final. Marked WRONG on what sits in the gap. This is the call most worth your second look: in P5b.3 she struck out "ri" and wrote her corrected answer "(left)" in brackets the same way, so the brackets may well be her final answer here too. If you overturn it, Part 5 becomes 9 of 9, the total 43 of 48, and the nota 4.5.
- P4a.3, P4a.5 and P4a.6 are marked correct on sense, as comprehension answers are. Audio 18.3 has the man say "Sorry, I don't live here", and "Because he is new here" carries that reason; "Can you say that again please" is Marta's rescue sentence; "about five minutes walk" answers "Is it far?". P4a.4 is wrong because "he has no time" is not the woman's reason: she does not know exactly where the museum is.

• P7a.2 is marked correct although she wrote "next to F" where the key writes "next to the church". On the page 4 map the park is the next thing on your right after F, so her directions get the person there, which is what the exercise asks for.

• P7a.3 is wrong for leaving out "after Main Street". Turning right at Third Avenue, F is on your right before Main Street, so her directions land the person at F and not at C. P7a.5 is wrong on the side: the church is on your right, not your left.

• Her question marks are drawn back-to-front throughout and are present on all five Part 3 answers. They are not marked wrong.

• Worth saying on the cover sheet: she scored full marks on the nine phrases, the six routes, the five questions and the whole conversation order. Everything she lost is in the listening (Part 4) and in giving directions herself (Part 7), which is the harder half.

Workshop 18: Excuse me, how do I get there? ➤

Asking the way, and understanding the answer

Name: ERIKA GARBELLO Date: 17/09/2026.

This workshop is about two things: asking for directions politely, and understanding the answer. The second one is harder, and it is the one we will practise most.

You will need the four recordings. Play them as many times as you want. Three times is normal, and nobody is watching.

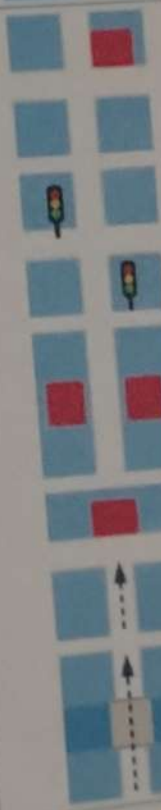

Your plan for today ▸

- Part 1 The words you need, with a picture for each one
- Part 2 Six people, six places: follow the directions on the map
- Part 3 How to ask, and what to say when you do not understand
- Part 4 Listening: three people, one question
- Part 5 Listening: find your teacher's house in St Kilda, Melbourne
- Part 6 Put the conversation in order
- Part 7 Your turn: give the directions
- Part 8 The way to your house, for your partner to follow

① The words you need

Nine phrases. They cover almost every direction anyone will ever give you. The picture is there so you do not have to translate in your head: look at it, say the English.

turn left	gira a la izquierda
turn right	gira a la derecha
go straight on	sigue derecho
go past the church	pasa la iglesia (sigue, no te pares)
on the corner (corna)	en la esquina
at the traffic lights	en el semáforo
opposite the bank	frente al banco, al otro lado
at the end of the street	al final de la calle
a bridge	un puente

▸ AUDIO 18.1 Listen and repeat the nine phrases. Say them out loud.

⚠ Two to be careful with go past the church means you do NOT stop there: it is behind you afterwards. And opposite means on the other side of the street, facing it. It is not next to.

a. ✎ Write the phrase in English.

9 points

1. gira a la derecha = turn right
2. en la esquina = on the corner
3. sigue derecho = go straight on
4. un puente = a bridge
5. en el semáforo = at the traffic lights
6. gira a la izquierda = turn left
7. al final de la calle = at the end of the street.
8. frente al parque = opposite the park
9. pasa la iglesia = go past the church.

② Six people, six places

This is our town. Six people are standing where you are, on the red dot at the end of Park Street, and each one asked somebody the way. Read what they were told, follow it on the map with your finger, and write the letter. 6 points. after Main Street means you have crossed it and it is now behind you

1 Camila wants to buy stamps.
"Go straight on. It is the first building on your right, on the corner of Third Avenue."
Where does Camila go? → F

2 Andrés wants to see the paintings.
"Go straight on to the traffic lights and turn right. Go past the church. It is the next building on your right, on the corner of Main Street."
Where does Andrés go? → B

3 Lucía is ill and needs a doctor.
"Go straight on. Turn right at Third Avenue. It is on your right, after Main Street."
Where does Lucía go? → C

4 Tomás needs bread and milk.
"Go straight on, past the church and past the traffic lights. It is on your right, on the corner of First Avenue."
Where does Tomás go? → E

5 Sara wants to borrow a book.
"Go straight on, past the church and the traffic lights. Turn right at First Avenue. It is on your right, after Main Street."
Where does Sara go? → A

6 Julián wants to walk to the other side of the river.
"Turn right at the traffic lights, then go straight on, to the end of the street."
Where does Julián go? → the bridge

① How to ask

Three ways to ask, from shortest to most polite. All three are fine, and all three start with Excuse me.

Short	Excuse me, where's the museum?
A little more polite	Excuse me, is the museum near here?
The most polite	Excuse me, can you tell me the way to the museum, please?

When you do not understand ▸

This is the most useful part of the whole workshop. Nobody understands directions the first time, not even in Spanish. These four sentences buy you another try.

Sorry, could you say that again, please?
Could you speak more slowly, please?
Sorry, I don't understand.
Is it far?

▸ AUDIO 18.2 Listen and repeat the three questions and the four rescue sentences.

a. ✎ Put the words in order to make the question.

5 points

1 me / excuse / the bank / where's → Excuse me, where's the bank?
2 near / is / here / the park → Is the park near here?
3 you / can / me / tell / the way / to the station → Can you tell me the way to the station?
4 again / could / that / you / say → Could you say that again?
5 far / is / it → Is it far?

④ Listening: three people, one question

Marta is in our town, on the map in Part 2. She is looking for the museum, and she asks three people. Listen right through once without writing anything. Then listen again and answer.

▸ AUDIO 18.3 Marta asks three people the way to the museum.

a. ✎ Answer the questions.

6 points

1 Which building is the museum? A, B, C, D, E or F? ~~F~~ ✗ B

2 How many people help her? ~~1~~ ✗ 1

3 Why can the first person not help?
Because he is new here. ✓

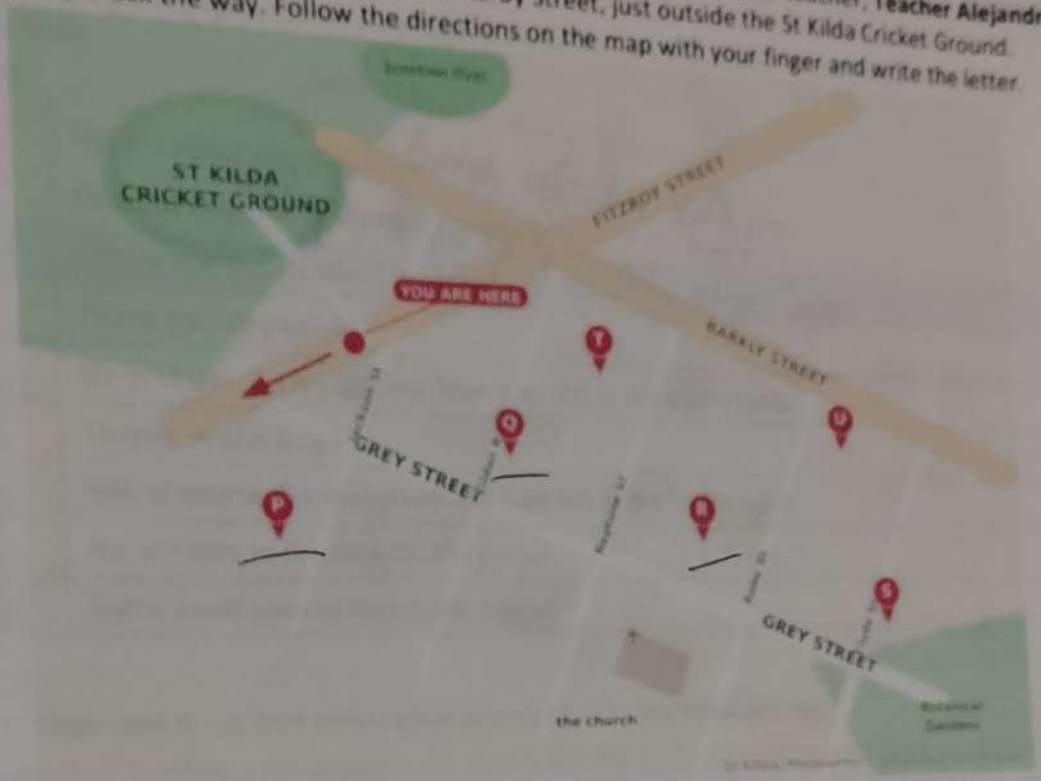

4 Why can the second person not help?
Because he has no time. ✗ She doesn't know exactly where it is.

5 What does Marta say when she does not understand?
Can you say that again please. ✓

6 Is the museum far?
about five minuts walk. ✓

Listening: where does Teacher Alejandro live?

A real place this time. This is St Kilda, in Melbourne, and it is where your teacher, Teacher Alejandro, lives. You are standing on the red dot, on Fitzroy Street, just outside the St Kilda Cricket Ground. Three people ask the way. Follow the directions on the map with your finger and write the letter.

▸ AUDIO 18.4 Three sets of directions in St Kilda. Start at the red dot each time.

a. Where do they go? Write the letter.

3 points

1 Conversation 1: the supermarket → P
2 Conversation 2: the chemist → Q
3 Conversation 3: 92 Grey Street → R

b. Listen again and complete the directions.

6 points six gaps in five sentences

1 Go along Fitzroy Street and turn (left) right into Grey Street. ✗ left
2 It's the first building on your right, before Jackson Street.
3 It's on your ri(left), on the corner of Eildon Road.
4 Go past Jackson Street, Eildon Road and Neptune Street.
5 Number 92 is opposite the church.

★ Why this matters

This is a real walk in a real suburb. Sacred Heart Church really does stand on Grey Street, and number 92 is across the road from it. If you ever come to Melbourne, this is how you would get from the cricket ground to my front door.

⑥ Put the conversation in order

These nine lines are one conversation, but they are mixed up. Number them 1 to 9. Line 1 is done for you.

Tip: Two people are talking, and they take turns: you, them, you, them. So the person who starts also finishes.

8 points

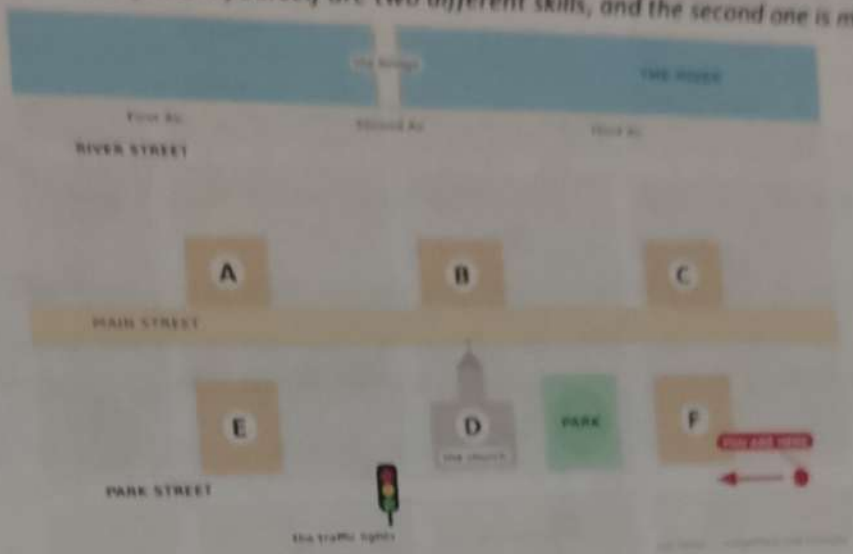

you	6	No, it's about ten minutes on foot.
I	7	One last question. Is it opposite the park?
I	1	Excuse me, can you tell me the way to the station, please?
I	9	Thank you very much!
you	4	No problem. Go straight on. Then turn left at the traffic lights.
I	5	Thanks. And is it far?
you	2	Yes, of course. Go straight on and turn left at the traffic lights.
you	8	No, it's next to the park, on the corner.
I	3	Sorry, could you say that again, please?

b. • Now read it out loud twice: once as you, once as the other person.

Not marked. Reading a conversation out loud is the cheapest speaking practice there is, and it is the only way the rescue sentence in line 3 will come out of your mouth when you really need it.

⑦ Your turn: give the directions

Back to our town. Now you are the person who helps. Someone is standing at the red dot and asks you. Write the directions in full sentences. Some of these places come up in Part 2. That is deliberate. reading directions and saying them yourself are two different skills, and the second one is much harder.

a. ✎ Write the directions.

5 points. One point for each set of directions that would get the person there.

1. Excuse me, can you tell me the way to E, please?

Go straight on, pass the traffic lights, It is on your right. ✓

2. Excuse me, where's the park?

Go straight on, it is on your right, next to F. ✓

3. Excuse me, is C near here?

Go straight on and turn right at third Avenue. It is on your right. ✗

4. Excuse me, how do I get to the bridge?

Turn right at the traffic lights and go straight on. ✓

7a.3 Turn right at Third Avenue. It's on your right, after Main Street.

5. Excuse me, where's the church?

Go straight on, past the park. It is on your left. ✗

7a.5 Go straight on. It's on your right, at the traffic lights.

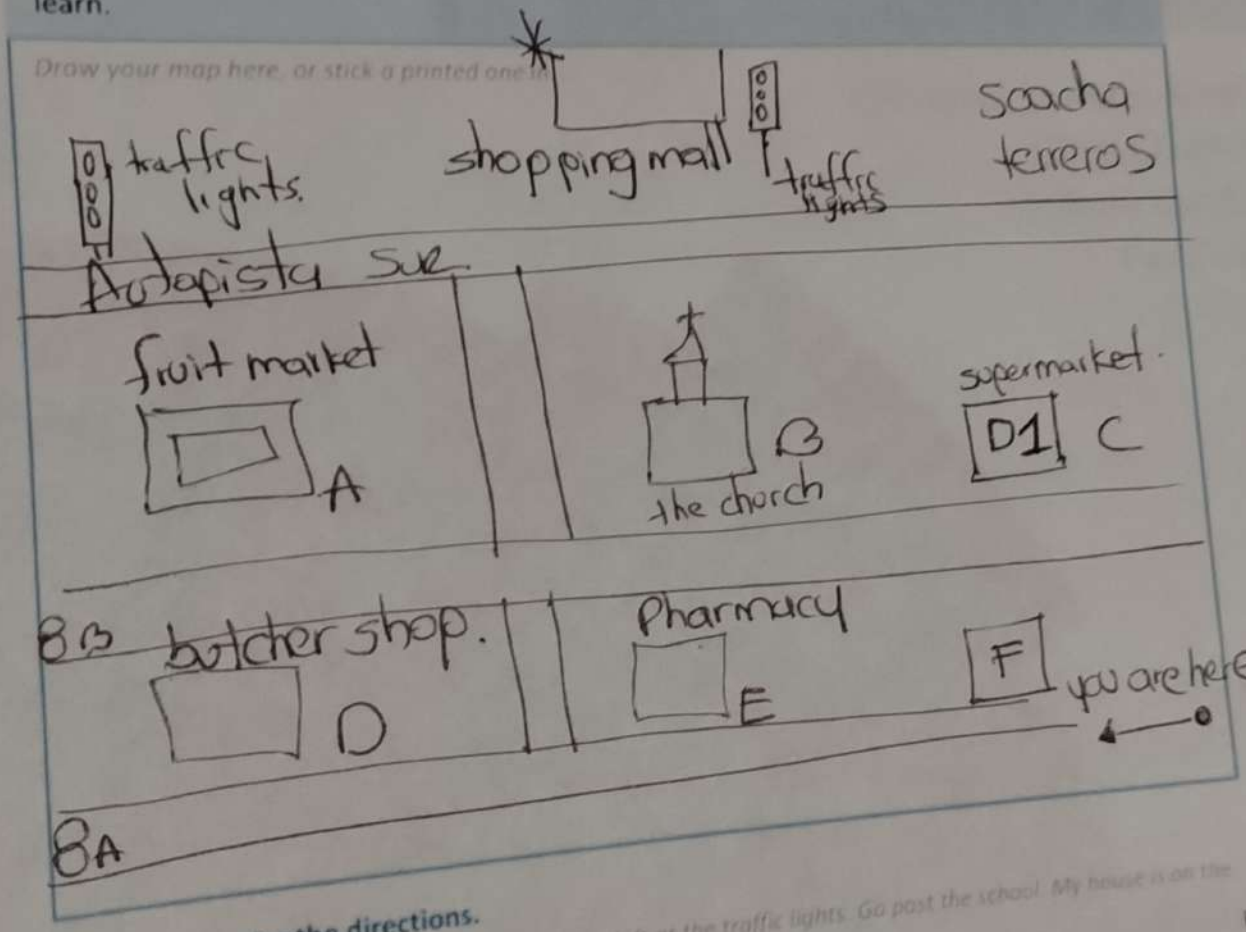

⑧ The way to your house

Not marked, and the most useful page in the workshop. Your partner has to find your house. The only help they get is your map and your words.

Student	You draw the map for	You will get
Erika	Didier	Didier's map
Didier	Erika	Erika's map

1. Draw a map in the box. Start at a place your partner knows: the park, the church, the school. Put a dot there. Then put an X on your house. (Do not want to use your house? Use a shop or a café you like.)
2. Write the directions on the lines in part a. Use five or more of the nine phrases from Part 1.
3. Take a photo of this page and send it to your partner. Your partner follows your words with a finger. Do they arrive? If they do not, find the sentence with the problem. That is the sentence to learn.

Draw your map here, or stick a printed one in.

a. ✎ Now write the directions.

Like this: Start at the park. Go straight on. Turn left at the traffic lights. Go past the school. My house is on the corner, opposite the shop.

Start at you are here, on 8A street, go straigh on, go past the pharmacy and the butcher shop, torn right at the corner go straight on, go past the fruit market, turn left at the traffic lights, the shopping mall is on the corner, on your right.
