Not counted in the score

- Part 6A, the ten matching pairs. The lines are drawn, but page 6 of the photograph is over-exposed and no pairing can be traced even after heavy enhancement. Taken out of the score so it neither helps nor hurts. It can be marked in two minutes from the paper itself.

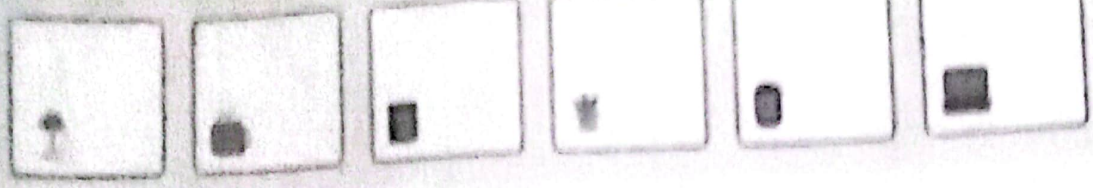

Notes on the marking

- The whole paper is in very light pencil and the photograph loses a lot of it. Page 5 is the only page that reads easily. Where this sheet says an answer is indistinct, trust the paper over the scan.
- PART 4A WAS NOT ATTEMPTED: no circle, tick or mark of any kind on any of the six rows, and no eraser shadow. Part 4B right below it was done in full and done well.
- A fault in the worksheet, not in her work: Part 4A gives no picture for any of the six sentences, so IN, ON and UNDER are all grammatically possible and the exercise has no single right answer as printed. The key on this sheet is the natural reading. Worth fixing before the sheet is used again.
- Part 5C: all six answers have the right form (It's against They're) and the right a or an, and all six are missing the apostrophe. Marked wrong, because the apostrophe is what the exercise teaches. One habit, not six separate mistakes.
- Part 6B: she drew nothing and coloured nothing, and wrote a word in each box instead. The eight words are correct opposites, but they answer exercise A's list rather than the label on the box each sits in. She knows the opposites; she answered the wrong exercise.
- Part 3's ten item names and the whole of Part 7 are blank. Both of the paper's free-writing tasks were skipped, which is where 13 of the marks went.
- Part 2: 'kug' for mug and 'bouk' for book take the mark, because that exercise tests recognising the object and the word bank was in front of her; the spelling is corrected in red. 'bouk' for the tissues is a different matter and is wrong.
- Not marked as errors, because they are how she forms letters: u as a narrow v, o as an unclosed loop, s as a hook and downstroke, k as a stem with a V branch, m as a double arch.
