Comentarios

¡Muy buen trabajo, Sloan! Tu vocabulario de alimentos es excelente: tradujiste las diez palabras al español y dibujaste todas. Y la parte de hábitos saludables te salió perfecta: 8 de 8 en unir, 8 de 8 en verdadero o falso y 8 de 8 en completar. Eso es muy difícil de lograr.

También entendiste muy bien am, is y are: elegiste el verbo correcto en las ocho frases. Ojo con una cosa: la pregunta pedía solo el verbo, y tú escribiste "is not", "are not". El verbo está bien, pero "not" cambia el significado de la frase. No te quité puntos, pero míralo en la página siguiente.

Para la próxima, dos cositas. Primero, en las preguntas con -ing el verbo se pasa al frente una sola vez: "Is she eating lunch?", no "Is she is eating lunch?". Segundo, revisa que hayas usado todas las palabras de la caja: te faltaron yogurt y carrot.

Nota para el profesor: la sopa de letras de este taller tiene un error. La palabra JUICE no está en la cuadrícula (sí está SOUP, que no aparece en la lista), así que este ejercicio se calificó sobre 9 y no sobre 10. Sloan no perdió puntos por eso.

QUÉ CORREGIR

Aquí están las respuestas que no salieron bien. Son muy pocas: casi todo el taller estuvo perfecto. Lee la última columna en voz alta una vez.

carrot	¿En qué columna va?	sin clasificar	Other food / Drinks

3c · Escribe preguntas

Punto	Pregunta	Escribiste	Respuesta correcta
3	She is eating lunch.	is she is eating lunch?	Is she eating lunch? (el verbo va al frente, no se escribe dos veces)
4	They are drinking water.	are they are drinking water?	Are they drinking water?

3a · am, is o are — revisa esto

Punto	Pregunta	Escribiste	Respuesta correcta
1–8	La pregunta pedía solo am, is o are.	escribiste "is not", "are not", "am not"	El verbo está bien en las ocho. Pero "not" cambia el significado: "The apple is red", no "is not red". No pierdes puntos.
